A Word from St. Benedict's Rule

Do not be daunted immediately by fear and run away from the road that leads to salvation. It is bound to be narrow at the outset. But as we progress in this way of life and in faith, we shall run on the path of God's commandments, our hearts overflowing with the inexpressible delight of love.

The Psalms: The Song of the Church

The collection of psalms found in Scripture, composed as it was under divine inspiration, has, from the very beginnings of the Church, shown a wonderful power of fostering devotion among Christians as they offer to God a continuous sacrifice of praise, the harvest of lips blessing his name. Following a custom already established in the Old Law, the psalms have played a conspicuous part in the sacred liturgy itself, and in the divine office. Thus was born what Basil calls the voice of the Church, that singing of psalms, which is the daughter of that hymn of praise (to use the words of our predecessor, Urban VIII) which goes up unceasingly before the throne of God and of the Lamb, and which teaches those especially charged with the duty of divine worship, as Athanasius says, the way to praise God, and the fitting words in which to bless him. Augustine expresses this well when he says: God praised himself so that man might give him fitting praise; because God chose to praise himself man found the way in which to bless God.

The psalms have also a wonderful power to awaken in our hearts the desire for every virtue. Athanasius says: Though all Scripture, both old and new, is divinely inspired and has its use in teaching, as we read in Scripture itself, yet the Book of Psalms, like a garden enclosing the fruits of all the other books, produces their fruits in song, and in the process of singing brings forth its own special fruits to take their place beside them.

From the apostolic constitution Divino Afflatu of Pope Saint Pius X

Introduction to the Divine Office

A special session will be held on Saturday, November 4, 2017 9:30, in the Lancaster Room at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital. We will share the history of the Liturgy of the Hours and its connection with the Rule of Benedict, as well as instructions for using the Shorter Christian Prayer book, our chapters' book for the Divine Office. Please plan to come to this session if you are unfamiliar with how to use the Shorter Christian Prayer book, or if you been using Shorter Christian Prayer, but still sometimes feel unsure if you are using it effectively.

Mark Your Calendar

The annual oblation ceremony will be held on Sunday, November 12, 2017 at 2:30 pm. Not that this is a half hour later than in prior years to allow our oblates from outside of Lincoln extra time for their trip.

Let us join those who have heard God's call to share in the Benedictine way of life by making their final oblation, and welcome those who are making their initial oblation. The oblation ceremony will be held in the James E. Ryan Chapel at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital in Lincoln. We will celebrate Vespers, First Oblation of new members, Final Oblation for novice oblates, and Renewal of Oblation for current members. A reception will follow in the North Commons. We will have vespers pamphlets available, so there is no need to bring your Shorter Christian Prayer books.

Friends and family are invited to attend. Sr. Phyllis Hunhoff, Sr. Maribeth Wentzlaff, and Sr. Patricia Heirigs will be coming from Sacred Heart Monastery for the ceremony. Those making initial and final oblation, as well as those helping at the ceremony (ushers, assistant, reception) will meet at 1:15 pm in the Chapel for orientation to the ceremony and to meet the Sisters. To those joining us as novices this year, and those making their initial oblation as oblates to Sacred Heart Monastery we say Welcome!

We will offer a book exchange table at the Oblation ceremony. Bring your spiritual books that you no longer need. We will have a space to display them for others to take home. Books not taken will be donated.

Rest In Peace

We mourn the loss of Oblate Sharon Connor, of the Hastings Chapter, who passed away October 12 after a brief illness. Juliene Bryan held the deceased oblates service prior to Sharon's funeral. It was a beautiful tribute that her family appreciated.

We also mourn for Omaha oblate Charles Luczyinski, who passed away on October 14, 2017.

We remember, also, Lincoln Oblate Joanie Perry who passed away on September 30. All will be remembered at the Oblation ceremony on November 12th at 2:30pm in the chapel at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital in Lincoln.

Chapter Gatherings

Readings are from Seven Sacred Pauses: Living Mindfully Through the Hours of the Day by Macrina Wiederkehr, OSB. Due to the Oblation Ceremony, the Lincoln and Steinauer Chapters will not be holding Chapter Gatherings in November.

Hastings

The Hastings Gathering will be held on Saturday, November 11, 2017 at 9:30-11:30 am, at St. Cecilia's Health Ministry Building, 415 N. Kansas, Hastings, NE. Oblation Ceremony for those unable to make the Lincoln meeting. Morning prayer, fellowship and refreshments, prayer leader Juliene Bryan.

Newsletter Volunteer Request

One of the many things that David Frye did for us was to take my WORD copy of the newsletter and put it into a template, add his artistic touches and turn it into a beautiful newsletter. While I'll continue to compose the new content for the newsletter, I'm asking for your help on the template part. Is there anyone more techno-savvy than I who would be willing to take on this task? We print newsletters monthly from September through June. Jim Rea releases the email version, and I send out the paper newsletters, so it's just a matter of completing the template. If you would like to contribute your talents and time to the oblates, please consider this task. You can contact me at MajorCarolB@yahoo.com, through our oblate email, or contact one of the deans. Thank you! Carol Barry Lincoln Dean
